ANDREW H. MURDOCK

Andrew H. Murdock was born November 14, 1881, at Heber, son of Joseph Stacy and Elizabeth Hunter Murdock, and was the youngest of 32 children of his father. He married Amanda Jane Horner on December 31, 1902. She died January 11, 1954. Andrew was educated in the Heber schools and was active in the sheep industry from 1909 to 1925. He purchased the Ideal Theatre in 1925, operating it until his death. At the time of his death he was survived by two sons and a daughter, Ellis and Ben Murdock and Mrs. Rhea Holm.

Wasatch Association of Businesses Hold Elections

The Wasatch County Association of Businesses elected three area business people to serve for the next two years as directors of the association. Elected to the post of director were Gail Smith, Max Mawhinney and Dick Buys. These directors replace Jeff Bradshaw, Steve Zimmerman and Bud Brossart.

The results of the election were announced at a breakfast meeting at the High Country Restaurant. Prior to the election ballots were mailed to all members of the association.

Bud Brossart, Chairman of Tourism, reported on the placing of billboards in Salt Lake which will advertise the Wasatch County tourist attractions. The billboards were contracted for six months with the intent that they will be updated as new events such as Fair Days and Swiss Days draw closer. Bud noted that these billboards were in prime viewing areas in Salt Lake and should have a positive effect on tourism in the valley. He also reported on plans to purchase TV spots promoting the area, these spots would be followed up by radio promotion which would be limited only by the amount of the budget that would be left over from the TV commercials.

It was also pointed out by Bud that several state oriented magazines would carry information about the area.

County Commissioner Lorin Allred presented a plan where the Business Association would contribute to the construction of a float that would be used to represent Wasatch County at the parades that are held through the summer in other communities in the state. He felt that this would be beneficial in promoting the tourism in the area.

Events planned for the near future include a fishing contest to be held on June 29 and 30. This contest will have a prize of $10,000 for anyone who catches a Brown Trout that breaks the standing state record of 33 lbs. There will also be a Golf Tournament on August 3 at the Wasatch Mountain State Park.

Ideal Theatre To Reopen Friday

1-18-89

The Ideal Theatre will reopen Friday with the movie, "Twins." Theatre owner, Steve Zimmerman, said that the theatre has been closed due to a scarcity of movies for Heber City this Christmas season.

He explained that although there are quite a few movies playing in Salt Lake City, film companies have been issuing less prints of these movies making it increasingly difficult for a small town like Heber to obtain the hit movies quickly. FVJ=1-20

"The situation seems to be loosening up, at least temporarily," Zimmerman said. The movie "Twins" stars Danny Devito and Arnold Swartzenegger, and has been one of the top two films in the nation since it opened.
